

CLE IS OPEN. AND READY FOR BUSINESS.

Here's The Deal.

Cleveland is open and ready to host your group. We're so ready that we're offering zero attrition fees and zero cancellation fees at participating hotels – when you choose Cleveland for your meeting or convention between now through December 2021.

Cleveland businesses have taken the pledge to move our city forward as it responsibly reopens. So every meeting attendee will receive a CLEAN KIT. For a list of CLEAN COMMITTED businesses or to submit your RFP, click here.

Disc: Valid for meetings or conventions that take place through 2021 only. Offer valid at participating hotels only based on availability and subject to cancellation. Number of peak rooms available for promotion may vary by hotel. 30-day cut off required for zero attrition. 60-day cancellation notice required for zero cancellation fees. Offer applies to new business only (not definite business on the books or business rebooked from 2020 and 2021 due to cancellations outside contracted Force Majeure clauses).
